

John P. Dentico, Ed. D.

In today's ever-changing world, the organizations and leaders that succeed are those that can take control in the face of a volatile and uncertain future.

At LeadSimm LLC Dr. Dentico created a Leadership Training System that enables leaders to forecast problems and opportunities, simulate real responses, and proactively take control of the organization's future. The process-driven, action-oriented system trains organizations to prepare for tomorrow's headlines today equips them to attract and retain great talent and foster high degrees of mutual trust within their teams.

Dr. John P. Dentico is the president of LeadSimm LLC a leadership training, simulation and consulting practice. He is the creator of the LeadSimm Leadership Impact Simulation Method as well as the TSWG Strategic Thinking process.

He is the award-winning author of "Throttle Up: How to Accelerate the Impact of 21st-Century Leadership."

"I had the pleasure of working with John Dentico during the development of the revised ATD CPLP Learning System . . . John is one of the best SME's that I have had the pleasure to work with for nearly 20 years in this industry."

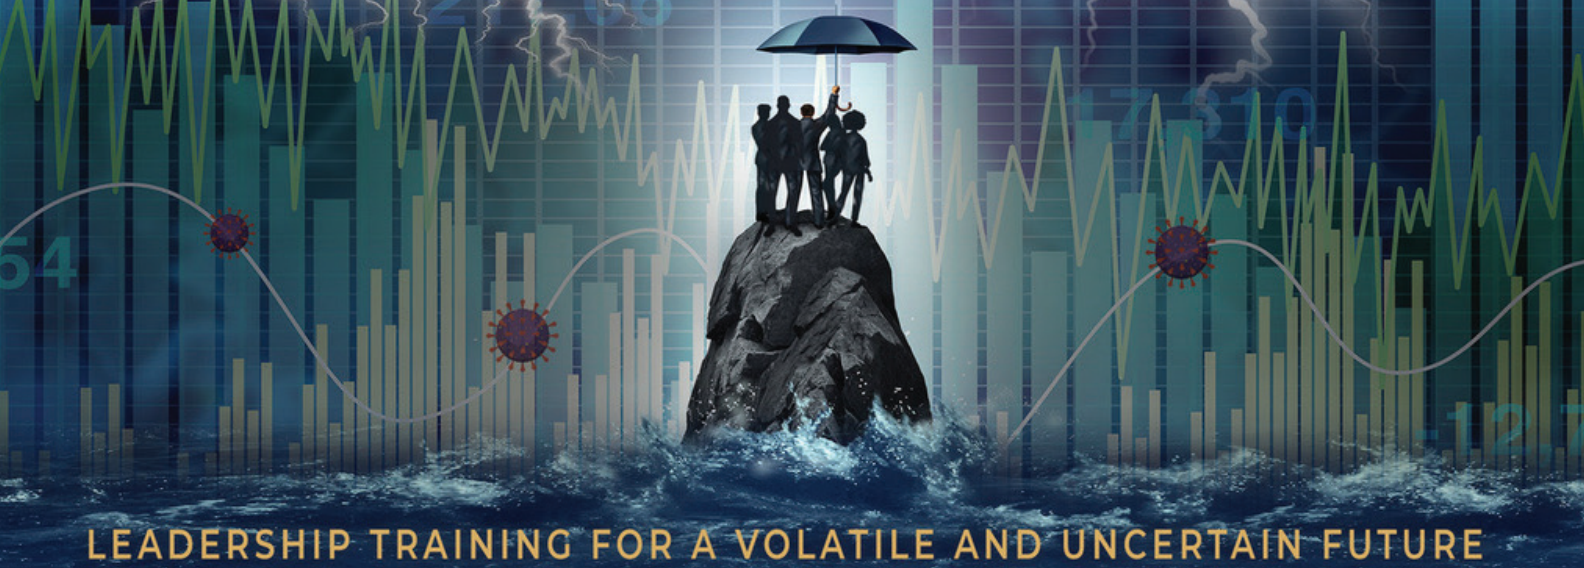

Lynn Sparapany Lewis -
